

VERDICT GIVEN; DREYFUS IS FREE

Famous French Army Scandal Is Decided By The Supreme Court.

COMPLETELY CLEARS OLD VICTIM

Will Take His Place In The Army As Though Nothing Had Happened To Change His Plan Of Life.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Paris, July 12.—The supreme court today announced its decision annulling the condemnation of Dreyfus without a trial. In effect the decision is a complete vindication of Dreyfus, entitling him to restoration to his rank in the army as though he had never been accused.

The Decision.
The main features of the decision are as follows: The court holds that three new facts have been established: First, that the documents from General Mercier's secret papers, presented at the Rennes court-martial, in which the initial "D" was substituted for "H," were falsifications, establishing a strong presumption that Dreyfus was innocent.

Second Reason.
Second, that the other document from the secret papers in which Dreyfus is alleged to have delivered to the Germans plans for a railway mobilization never reached the war department authorities and, therefore, Dreyfus could not have secured possession of it.

Third Reason.
Third, that the Rennes court-martial failed to hear the essential testimony calculated to establish the fact that Dreyfus was innocent. After a lengthy review of the document in (the case known as Bordereau the decision was reached. It was written by Esterhazy and it was decided that the accusations connecting Dreyfus with the Bordereau rest only on a hypothesis conjecture.

Read by Judge.
The decision was read by the presiding judge on the assembling of the court at noon. The Palace of Justice was thronged. Captain Dreyfus was not present. The scene of the reading of the decision was pronounced as one of impressive dignity. The court, consisting of forty-nine judges, were gowned in red robes and solemnly mounted the bench.

Deep Silence.
Deep silence prevailed as the presiding judge reviewed the series of sensational events of the last twelve years and completely discredited Dreyfus as all wrongdoing, freeing him from being the author of the famous incriminating documents.

Dreyfus Happy.
In an interview Captain Dreyfus said: "This has been a long and terrible ordeal and I have nothing to say against my accusers. Being again an army officer, I am obliged to obey the army regulation of silence and am thankful to all who assisted in the maintenance of the truth."

LAWYERS OF MANY STATES GATHERED IN YEARLY MEETS

Indiana, Texas, Arkansas, Iowa and Illinois Attorneys Assembled in Conventions.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Des Moines, Ia., July 12.—Reform in the jury system, the punishment of juveniles, and the divorce evil are the three prominent subjects slated for discussion by the twelfth annual meeting of the Iowa State Bar association. About 300 lawyers were present when the gathering was called to order this morning. Reports of officers and committees occupied the greater part of the forenoon session, following the usual exchange of greetings. The only feature of the session outside of routine business was an interesting address on "The Divorce Problem and Recent Decisions in the United States Supreme Court," delivered by D. D. Murphy of Elkader. The address of the president opened the afternoon session, which was followed by an address by Hon. S. M. Weaver of Iowa Falls and the reports of various committees. William E. Bailey of Des Moines has been selected to act as toastmaster at the convention banquet tonight. The annual address before the association is to be delivered tomorrow by Judge John Campbell of the Colorado supreme court. Judge Campbell has been selected as his subject, "Freedom of the Executive in Exercising Governmental Functions from Control by the Judiciary."

Illinois Lawyers in Session.
Chicago, Ill., July 12.—A good attendance marked the thirtieth annual meeting of the Illinois State Bar association, which opened at the Chicago Beach hotel today. Prominent members of bench and bar from all sections of the state were in attendance. The feature of the initial session was the address of the president, George T. Gage of Peoria, who reviewed at considerable length the legislation of the recent session of the Illinois general assembly, and the judicial decisions on reference to it. The meeting will continue over tomorrow. James Hagerman of St. Louis is to deliver the annual address. Other addresses will be delivered by M. J. Daugherty of Galesburg on "Law of Primary Elections," by William E. Curran of Pekin on "Graft," and by Robert McCurdy of Chicago. Another feature will be a joint discussion on "Municipal Ownership." The addresses at this year's meeting are fewer in number than in former years. This affords more time for the discussions and the association hopes that it will lead to more practical results.

Justice Brewer Speaks.
Texarkana, Ark., July 12.—This was another interesting and busy day for the scores of lawyers of Texas and Arkansas in joint convention here. The feature of the day was the delivery of the annual address by Justice David J. Brewer of the United States supreme court. This afternoon the two state associations met separately to conclude the transaction of their routine business, including the election of officers for the ensuing year. Great preparations have been made for the banquet with which the convention concludes tonight. H. M. Garwood of Houston is to act as

RICHARDSON SEES SENATOR

This May Mean That Rock County
Will See Bitter Fight—Fight
on Cooper.[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., July 12.—Everyone waits with expectation for the next move of the great political game that is being played in Wisconsin this summer and fall. True the greater portion of the work will be over by September, but the tense feeling that pervades in political circles is worse than it ever has been. The democratic party is so demoralized that even the talk of a fight for the nomination for Governor Meriton of Waukesha against Alward of Madison is merely a side issue. No one expects the democrats to win no matter who is nominated and the real interests lies in the congressional and state fight.
Senator La Follette is back in the state again; this time he announces for a few days. He is in need of a rest before continuing his arduous chautauqua work and will probably help straighten out a few fences while he is here.Janesville Interested.
Yesterday afternoon Victor P. Richardson, former Mayor of Janesville and one of the La Follette leaders of that city, had a long conference with the Senator. He came on a special invitation and was closeted with La Follette for several hours.
Mr. Richardson, it is said, will have charge of the Lenroot campaign in Rock county. He will also look after the interests of Congressman Cooper. Other former leaders of the La Follette faction in Rock county appear to be forced to remain inactive for the present. J. L. Fisher seeks re-nomination for district attorney, Grant U. Fisher both hold state jobs at the gift of Davidson and others are silent because of the fear of jeopardizing Fisher's chances for nomination for district attorney.Is Doubtful.
Inside circles claim that Rock county is doubtful. Neither the Davidson or the Lenroot men claim it and between now and September it is safe to say that both candidates will have some hard work done in this former stronghold. Davidson has lost some support there he might otherwise have had by appointment of Fisher last winter as district attorney, but on the other hand it is claimed by this appointment he has tied the hands of the majority of the La Follette leaders in Rock and Grant counties, who earnestly advocated his appointment. Some of the prominent leaders of this faction are now said to be earnestly advocating Davidson's nomination, while others, as in the case of V. P. Richardson, will apparently espouse the cause of Lenroot.
Talk that the old factional fight in this county is about over and that several former radical La Follette leaders will appear upon the county ticket this fall is prevalent throughout the capital.Many Politicians.
Many politicians arrived in Madison last night and this morning to attend the funeral of the late H. C.
Adams. Mr. Adams was one of the best liked and most popular politicians of the state and his death has greatly complicated matters. He was a candidate for re-nomination and was opposed by John Nelson, a former strong administration man, who has now apparently espoused Davidson's cause. With Adams' death and the announcement a special election under the old style caucus and convention system several others have been spoken of. Prominent among these is ex-Governor Hoard of Port Atkinson. It is, however, understood today that Hoard will not run. Nels Holman, a conservative from Deerfield, who was candidate for secretary of state on the National Republican ticket
two years ago, has now announced himself. His attitude on the tobacco and beet question and the fact he is a farmer in touch with the farmers interests may work in his favor.
Among others who are here is Congressman Minor of the Ninth congressional district. Minor will have a fight on his hands led by Isaac Stephenson of Marinette, but announces that he will not begin his campaign for days yet. The name of William Froelich, ex-secretary of state, is also being strongly talked of for the old position he held for two terms. Honors acquittal and the subsequent story that Frear had instigated the prosecution have all worked in his favor. He is said to be stronger today than ever.

first district is the most interesting of any. While there is much thunder about what is going to be done to Babcock in the third the active work that is being started against Cooper in the first is surprising even the most sanguine who expected the talk of opposition to his return would all die a natural death weeks ago.
Jeffris was expected to cut some
Nolan's announcement of candidacy attention was turned elsewhere. Nolan has apparently made such strides within the past two weeks that the talk at the statehouse today was that Cooper had the fight of his political life on his hands. His mistake in advocating the Philippine Bill against the interests of the majority of his constituents had injured him in the minds of the guides of the state capit and his dilatory methods of making postoffice appointments has also hurt him. The situation in Beloit, where three men are being held up with the plum still in sight, is one of the examples. Walworth county has several bad appointments; one of them a democrat at Delavan and the Racine postoffice mess has done much to hurt his chances in his home town.
Taking it all in all the general census of opinion is that it will be a fight worth watching and one in which the state candidates can do no better than keep their hands off.FIRST CITIZENSHIP
PAPERS NOT LEGALNew Naturalization Law May Cause Trouble in Issuing Second Papers to Immigrants.That the first citizenship papers will be made invalid by the new law adopted by congress, which goes into effect within two months, and that full citizenship or second papers can not, therefore, be secured based on these first papers, is the opinion of clerks of court who have read the law.
The new law requires that the first certificate which is issued to the prospective citizen should contain the age, occupation, description of the person, place of birth, date of arrival in this country, name of the ship, and the present address of the applicant, and as the present first papers do not contain these, it is the opinion that these will be made invalid and can not be recognized when application for full citizenship papers are made."The effect of the new law in my opinion will be far-reaching," said an official yesterday. "If my views are correct, I estimate that there are 15,000 men in this country who possess first papers only, and it will be impossible, even if we work night and day, to issue second papers to these 15,000, and many therefore will not be able to obtain second papers. The new law requires certain answers by the applicant, which the old law does not demand, and I can not see how we can issue second papers based on the first certificate, which under the new law is incomplete.Whether or not the right to vote will be taken away from those possessing first papers, because of the new law, none will venture to say.
Congressman Stafford of Milwaukee,
when asked as to the probable effect of the new law, agreed that the first papers would be invalid as soon as the new law will go into effect. But the right to vote could not be taken away from those who have secured first papers, according to the opinion of Mr. Stafford.STEWART TO BUILD

men and seventy horses in the big undertaking of building the ten-mile shovelful of earth was wielded by Joseph Connell, who arrived on the scene with 25 scrapers and several plows, but waited until the belt line officials arrived in their automobiles before starting the work. When everything is in full swing 1,000 men and several huge steam shovels will be at work. The ten miles, more than one-half of the length of the road,

must be completed before May 1, 1907. The Cleveland Short Line Railroad Co. is the first to begin actual work on a belt line around Cleveland.
For the past twenty years various promoters have made the attempt, but none of them have gotten further than securing part of the right-of-way.
When this ten-million-dollar project is completed the Lake Shore, the Big have been woven together in one sys-

WHAT CAUSES DANDRUFF.

Greatest European Authority on Skin

Diseases, Says It's a Germ.

The old idea that dandruff is scales of skin thrown off through a feverish condition of the scalp is exploded.
Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany,
European authority on skin diseases, says dandruff is a germ disease. The germ burrows under the scalp, throwing up little scales of cuticle, and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root. The only hair preparation that kills dandruff germs is Newbro's Her-picide. "Destroy the cause, you re-

Wait for that Madison interurban.

Governor Davidson is going to try a little railroad-political capital, too.

That Beloit postoffice question is still open but the bets now favor David.

There is small comfort these hot days in thinking how the price of ice has gone up.

Root is down in the southern waters. Taft in the south, Roosevelt at Oyster Bay and the "lid" in Washington is having a rest.

More prominence is being given Cooper's stand against the interests of his former constituents than was at first thought would be.

Warm days and the sound of next winters' coal do not like well. Some people however insist on putting in their supply the hottest days they can find.

Madison talks a "Home Coming" for next year. Where is Janesville all this time? Why do not the business men wake up to the situation and make the date first?

They are trying to run ex-Governor Hoard for congress in the second district. Hoard is the farmers' friend and in an agricultural community would make a good representative.

Thus far there seems to be no opposition to Elmy Norcross' return to the legislature from the Second district. There should not be any either. Norcross has made a good record and deserves nomination and reelection.

Secretary Taft has invaded the solid south in the hopes of breaking the great democratic majority. The south had a taste of the republican party politics in the days of the carpet baggers and it will take all of Taft's eloquence to do much to change the overwhelming majority for democracy in the "black belt."

INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE.

In the early days of ancient history we find that certain nations were known as traders; others as warlike tribes. The ships of Tyre and Sidon traveled the Mediterranean, even going as far as the British Isles for tin. Carthage was powerful in the world of trade and Grecian ships traversed many unknown seas in search of barytes. Rome was warlike and so was early Egypt. Alexander and his Macedonian phalanx invaded Asia and he died sighing for more worlds to conquer. The Medes and Persians lived by war making their subject nations do their manual labor and trading.

Today international commerce is the life of the nation. The warlike standing of nations does not appear of as much importance as does the commercial value. During the present year the world's international commerce will aggregate fully twenty-five billions of dollars in the year 1906. It totaled twenty millions in 1890, seventeen and a half millions in 1880, fourteen and one-half millions in 1870 and one-half millions in 1860, seven and a quarter millions in 1850, four millions in 1840, two millions in 1830, one million in 1820, and half a million in 1810.

An examination of these figures of imports and exports of the principal countries of the world and the monthly average of their exports and imports gives some interesting facts. This monthly average is necessarily adopted as a method of comparison of trade conditions among the various countries, because their fiscal years end at such varying dates that it is quite impossible to compare the totals for complete years and bring the calculation down to the present moment. By taking the monthly average for that part of the fiscal year already completed, however, a comparison of the trade of the various countries with their own trade in a corresponding period of last year is possible, and it is also practicable to compare the monthly average of one country with any other of the thirty countries included in this list which the Bureau of Statistics publishes each month in its Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance. An examination of this table with the purpose of comparing the world's commerce at the present moment with that of a year ago shows that the average monthly exports of Argentina have increased from 21½ millions to practically 26 millions; those of Austria-Hungary from 27 millions to 37 millions per month; those of Belgium from 30½ millions to 34½ millions; those of Canada from 16½ millions to 20½ millions; those of France from 64½ millions to 72½ millions; those of Germany from 103½ millions to 110½ millions; those of China from 11½ millions to practically 14 millions; those of Cuba from 7½ millions to 9½ millions; those of Mexico from 6½ millions to practically 10 millions; those of European Russia from 41½ millions to 43½ millions; those of the United Kingdom from 127 millions to 143½ millions; and those of the United States from 125 millions to 147 millions per month.

These comparisons, it should be understood, relate to the monthly average exportation in the accumulated months of the fiscal year of each country named, compared with the monthly average of the corresponding months of the preceding year, and as the dozen countries above named are the principal exporting countries of the world, it is quite fair to assume that the world's total of exports will aggregate in the present year considerably more than half of the preceding year.

The fact that the total exports have increased as above indicated makes it quite apparent that the imports must have also increased, and this conclusion is justified by the import figures, which show that the monthly average of Argentina's imports have increased from 15 million dollars to 15½ millions; Austria-Hungary's from 35½ to 43½ millions; Belgium's from 41½ to 51½; Canada's from 19½ to 20½; China's from 17½ to 20½; Cuba's from 6½ to nearly 8; that of France from 78½ to 85½; Germany from 126½ to 133½; Italy from 28½ to 32½; Netherlands from 78 to 80½; United Kingdom from 226½ to 241½; and the United States from 93½ to 101½ millions.

The only countries in the list which show a falling off in the monthly average in exports being Bulgaria, Greece, Portugal, and Sweden, and in each of these cases the reduction is slight, while the countries which show a reduction in monthly average of imports are Bulgaria, Cape of Good Hope, Greece, Japan, Norway, European Russia, and Uruguay. These reductions in both the imports and exports are small, and relate in most cases to countries having a comparatively small trade, and this will not offset any material losses to the enlargement of the total international commerce indicated by the monthly increases of the more important commercial countries.

An examination of the import column shows that the United States, which ranks first as an exporter, stands third among the nations as an importer, the monthly average of importation into the United States for the nine months ending with March being $107,506,417, the monthly average into the United Kingdom in the same period, $241,390,911; into Germany during the twelve months ending with December 1905, $133,478,333; France, $85,423,650; Netherlands, $80,470,686; and Belgium, $51,682,300, while in all others of the countries named the average of imports falls below the $50 million dollar line.

PRESS COMMENT.

Quite Often the Case.

Without Him They're Riveted.

Milwaukee News. While Senator La Follette had rather go down to defeat than to be false to the people, he is permitting no opportunity to pass to remind them that if through their neglect or ingratitude he should lose office, their liberties would be taken from them and the shackles of corporate greed riveted upon their defenseless limbs.

Another Bede Jake. Madison Journal. "Bede" Bede of Minnesota wants Uncle Joe Cannon to succeed Roosevelt. Mr. Bede has an ancient name, but his jokes are original, all right. His recent statement that the country had been thoroughly Theodorized was also a good one.

Conservative Conclusion.

Chicago Record-Herald. Bread and milk as a diet enabled a New York woman to reach the age of 105 years. Unlike most people who succeed in living more than a century, she didn't die in a poorhouse. We feel justified in recommending bread and milk as against whisky and tobacco.

A Stone From the Glass House.

Oshkosh Northwestern. The Janesville Gazette complains that the Milwaukee Journal puts up too strong a front in always pretending to know it all. The Gazette should not be too hard on The Journal. The active imagination of the latter frequently outwits what otherwise would be a rather dull and uninteresting situation.

Speak Up, Walter!

Fond du Lac Bulletin. Mr. Houser, secretary of state, can hardly afford to remain quiet under the charge that he lobbied against the cigarette bill a year ago last winter. It is well known that several prominent in administration circles did lobby against the bill, but the name of Mr. Houser was not brought out in that connection at the time.

Has a General Application.

Oshkosh Northwestern. The La Crosse Leader Press takes a rap at Mr. Theodore Kronshage of Milwaukee by saying that "his testimony [in the Foster libel suit hearing] showed that he really knew nothing against Mr. Pfister more than the rumors printed in his own unreliable sheet." And to tell the truth the same observation could apparently be used with accuracy about every one of the defendants in this now famous case.

Monocena Undismayed.

Florence Mining News. Monocena Dunn, the inventor of the multicolored ballot, whose adoption in this state was defeated at the polls in April, has by no means abandoned all hope of having that ballot some day used by the people of Wisconsin, and he says that at the next legislature another bill will be introduced asking that for a second time the public be asked to vote on his question.

Do One Thing Well.

Milwaukee Journal. Edison's life motto has been, "This one thing I know—electricity." Confining himself to that one thing, he has taken out a thousand patents, while millions of men, knowing a little of everything, or trying to, or imagining they do, have accomplished nothing.

Beecher, the greatest preacher of his century, had this motto, "This one thing I do." His mighty accomplishment was possible only by turning all his energies and interests into one channel.

Goethe's motto was very much the same, "Whatever thou art, be all there."

The history of every successful man can be summed up in one sentence, "He did one thing well."

Success is an absolute mastery of the single thing in hand.

Dr. Samuel Johnson is said to have advised a youth to "know something about everything and everything about something." The advice was good in Dr. Johnson's day, when London was an isolated village and it took weeks to get news from Paris, Rome and Berlin. But today the man who takes all knowledge for his province and tries to know something about everything will find that his allotment of time on earth gives him but a fraction of a second for each subject that he must fill from topic to topic like a butterfly from flower to flower, and that he will accomplish in the world no more than the butterfly does.

True to the People.

Milwaukee News. "It is not a pleasant thing," Senator La Follette said in addressing a Chautauqua audience at Evansville, Ind., "to stand up here and bang away at the United States senate. But I intend to do it, because I believe to be right, even if I am ostracized in the senate. I would rather go down in defeat and be retired to private life than to be false to the people."

Mr. La Follette, however, is not courting defeat. At various times he has faced it, but he has been successful in avoiding it. Two years ago defeat stared him in the face at the republican state convention. A majority of the regularly elected delegates were opposed to his candidacy for a third term to the office of governor. So strong, however, was Mr. La Follette's desire to be true to the people that he had his state central committee, assisted by a force of strong-arm "reformers" organized for the occasion, bar from the convention enough of the regularly elected delegates to give to the "reformers" a majority.

Defeat, of course, is preferable to betrayal of the people. But victory is better than defeat. In organizing victory, Mr. La Follette found occasion to double the number of state office holders. No man was permitted to hold state office when he was governor that was not loyal to La Follette and the people. He fought the "corporations" and while he was fighting them his lieutenants were busy holding them up for campaign funds.

But Many Worries.

The man who is buried in thought has no funeral expenses.

KICKERS' KOLUM.

City's Seventieth Anniversary.

Editor Gazette: I notice that you have suggested a "Home-Coming" for Janesville next year. I, like many others, believe the idea good and would like to call attention to a few facts and make a few suggestions. In the first place, Janesville, as a post-office community, will be seventy years old next year and the proposed celebration would duly observe the anniversary. As the Bower City had a quiet fourth this year it will be due time to again honor our natal day next year. Then combine the "Home-Coming" and Fourth of July programs, as Brodhead did this year, and have an event such as never was held in the history of this place. Open the celebration on Wednesday, July 4, and continue it through Friday, July 6. Fill each day with speaking, ball games, horse and automobile races, etc., and have for the great crowning feature the "None Such Brothers" circus on the afternoon of Thursday, the fourth. If Brodhead, which is twenty years younger and much smaller, could have such a successful "Home-Coming," why could not this city have one still more glorious?

"NONE SUCH" EMPLOYE.

Kick Editor: There is no way to properly replace a madam saying: I believe there is and that attention should be called to Jackson, St. Louis, where the sewing tag recently been said. The replaced rubble has never received a coat of dressing and the stone has been kicked up as far as the railroad tracks. It would cost but little to have this dressing put on and save drivers of carriages much money on rubber tires.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Singers Going to Oshkosh: Twenty members of the Mozart Singing Society expect to leave at seven o'clock Saturday morning for Oshkosh, where they will participate in the joint musical festival which is to be given by the Central Wisconsin Saenger Chöre and the Eastern Wisconsin Saenger Chöre. It is expected that over 500 singers will take part and they will be assisted by the Arion orchestra under the direction of Charles P. Bauer and three soloists of note, Miss Bessie Mayham of Fond du Lac and the Messrs. Harry Meyer and J. J. W. Inbusch of Milwaukee.

Military Special.

Saturday morning at 9:25 a special will go through here on the St. Paul road carrying several military companies to Camp Douglas. The train will start from Monroe and carry Company H of that city. Company L of Beloit will be taken on here and at Milton Junction Company G of Whitewater.

Resting Comfortably.

Ernest Allen, who was operated upon yesterday, is resting comfortably at the Palmer hospital. Though he will be confined to his bed for some time it is denied that there is any immediate danger.

Back to the Mines.

It will be of interest to Janesville people because of the large number of local investors to know that the Slack Mining Co., near Plattville, has started up and by the appearance the prospects look very good. The Secretary of the mine sent word to Mr. Frank Baack today to hire some men to begin working in the mill at once and Mr. Baack, complying with his request, sent three men this morning and more will be sent Monday.

Applications for marriage licenses have been filed by Anton I. Schwab and Beulah Smith, both of Beloit; Harriet D. Rogers of Janesville and John P. Deane of Johnsons Creek; William Marquardt of Jefferson and Martha Griesback of Edgerton.

Mexico has a cactus which grows toothpicks, another, ribbed and thickly set with toothpick spines, which furnishes the natives with combs; there is another cactus, the long curved spines of which resemble fish hooks; there is another which is an almost perfect imitation of the sea urchin; still another resembles a porcupine; there is another covered with long red hair which is nicknamed the "red-headed cactus."

Unsanitary Graveyard.

Sanitary caution is not new, though doubtless it has grown. An eighteenth century rector was burying one of his parishioners in the churchyard, when he was interrupted by a woman who demanded immediate speech with him. "You must wait until I have finished," said he. "No, sir, I must speak at once." "Well, then what's the matter?" he inquired. "Why, sir," exclaimed the poor woman, "you are burying a man who died of the small-pox next my poor husband, who never had it."—N. Y. Tribune.

MAMMOTH STEEL PLANT

Largest of Its Kind to Be Built in Indiana.

OOST ESTIMATED AT $75,000,000

A New City Named Gary, For Steel Corporation's Chairman, Will Rise About the Plant on the Shores of Lake Michigan—Calumet River's Course to Be Changed.

Detailed plans of the mammoth steel plant the United States Steel corporation is building in Indiana on the shores of Lake Michigan were laid before the directors of the company at the regular quarterly meeting of the board the other afternoon. The new plant, which is to cost $75,000,000, is to be built by the Indiana Steel company, a subsidiary organization of the United States Steel corporation, formed for the purpose of carrying out the company's plans for this new steel plant, which will be the largest and the best equipped of its kind in the world. The plant is being built primarily to serve the western market, but it is so located that its product can be marketed advantageously in the east as well as in the west, says the New York Times.

The furnaces, rolling mills and other parts of the plant itself will cover a square mile, and in addition the company owns thousands of acres which will be used for a town-site, for vast railroad yards and for other facilities needed to insure the effective operation of this gigantic plant. After the meeting of the directors Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors, after whom the town which is to be built up around this new steel plant is to be named, announced some portion of the company's plans.

The plant will consist of a large aggregation of blast furnaces, open hearth furnaces and finishing mills, but the whole is to be so thoroughly co-ordinated that it will, in fact, be a single plant. There are to be sixteen blast furnaces, eighty four open hearth furnaces and six finishing mills, some of which, individually, will be larger than any of the single mills owned by the Steel corporation. The rail mill, for example, will be built at a cost of $2,500,000 and will be capable of rolling about 75,000 tons of rails a month. The first of the big rail mills constructed by the Steel corporation in the Pittsburgh district, which at the time was considered a very large mill, cost but $800,000.

Some idea of the amount of material which it will take to supply these mills is gained from the company's estimate that fully 5,000,000 tons of iron ore will be required by the plant annually. This will be brought down from the company's mines in the Lake Superior region and will be brought in to the plant immediately adjoining the company's blast furnaces, which form the first division of the Indiana plant. This ore will be converted into about 8,000,000 tons of pig iron, which in turn will produce from 2,500,000 to 2,700,000 tons of steel. Every ton of iron ore used will call for the consumption of at least another ton of coal and coke.

The erection of the company's plant will require a vast amount of structural steel, the production of which will keep some of the company's present mills busy for many months. A small army of men will be employed for two years or more in the construction of the plant, and when it is completed it will give employment to about 15,000 men.

The location of the plant includes a portion of the present bed of the Calumet river, the course of which is to be changed so that the waterway will fit in with the company's plans for the development of the land between the lake front and the Calumet river.

In addition to the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern and the other railroads owned by the Steel corporation, the new plant will be served by four great railroad systems, the Pennsylvania, the New York Central, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Wabash. The Erie also passes within easy connection of the new plant. The Steel corporation will own vast railroad yards to the west of the plant, which will be connected with all these railroad systems.

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern of the New York Central system, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Wabash are engaged in altering their lines in the neighborhood of the new plant so as to avoid all grade crossings and to make them fit in better with the Steel corporation's scheme of construction. The Baltimore and Ohio and the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern will have a union station in the town of Gary, and the Pennsylvania and the Wabash will have separate stations of their own.

The town of Gary, which primarily will be the dwelling place of the men employed in the new plant, is expected by the officers of the Steel corporation within four or five years to have a population of fully 100,000 people, which will place it in the front rank of the smaller cities of the United States. This population would make the town of Gary larger than Albany, the town is to be constructed as a model one, but the officers of the Steel corporation say that no use will be made of funds.

Already the Steel corporation has received applications from many directions for the privilege of establishing banks and stores of all kinds in this city, which is expected to grow up around the Indiana Steel company's plant. The Steel corporation will sell building sites in the town of Gary, but only under restrictions, so that the Steel corporation will be able to control the building up of the town.

IT WAS ARABIC ALL RIGHT.

Inscription on Souvenir Was Not in Mysterious Characters After All.

"Here's a cup I got in Morocco," said the enthusiastic tourist, showing his collection of souvenirs. "You see it has an Arabic inscription."

His friend, relates the New Orleans Times-Democrat, was turning the cup curiously around. At length he remarked, dryly:

"Yes, the inscription is Arabic all right."

"Sure!" replied the returned tourist, a little miffed at the intimation of a possible doubt.

"You can read it better if you turn the cup upside down," suggested the friend, and suiting the action to the word, he showed the tourist that the mysterious characters were nothing more than "1903" engraved in rough, irregular figures on the metal.

"The rascal!" exclaimed the outraged collector, "he told me that it was an Arabic inscription when he sold it to me!"

"He told you nothing more than the truth," was the reply. "You forget that the collector lost interest in the souvenir from Morocco."

Can we longer afford to overlook the fact that we can secure the very best of dental service at about half the rates we have been paying? Dr. Richards of Janesville, the independent dentist, says he would be delighted to have his work "put out at a modest price" compared with work done by others at possibly double his prices. He affirms that the comparison will establish the fact that:

His work is good in every respect. His work is lasting. His work is done thoroughly. His work is substantial, and, in fact, not excelled by that of any other local dentist.

In addition to the reasonableness of his prices he gives close attention to painless work. Now see what you get by having him do your dental work.

INDIANS SLEEP AS THOUGH COMPELLED

Strange Story by Returned Traveler That Is Not About Fish.

"All this talk about woodsmen, and particularly Indians, who are supposed to be so well versed in woodcraft, being light sleepers is tommyrot," said G. A. Wilkins, who has just returned from a camping trip in the northern woods. "I was with a party of friends, and while we were not experimenting on the Indian's sleeping qualities, we found out a thing or two."

"We went up north a few days before the Fourth and took a lot of fire-arms with us, among them a number of dynamite crackers. We had an Indian guide with us on the trip, and the principal thing he did was to sleep."

Early on the morning of the Fourth, we arose, all of us excepting the guide. We put the firecrackers all around the outside. Then we touched 'em off in rapid succession. Wake the Indian? Not a bit. He slept on as soundly as if never a noise had disturbed the silence of the forest. Then we thought we'd have a little run with him."

"Taking a good strong rope we tied it around the redskin's hands and feet. Didn't disturb him at all. Then we dragged him out of the tent, and up to within about six inches of a roaring fire before he gave any sign of returning consciousness. He just let out one 'Ugh,' saw that he was tied up, and then rolled over a couple of times so as to be further away from the fire and went to sleep again."

We gave it up as a bad job and left him. He was still sleeping when we came back to camp at noon. An Indian a light sleeper? Not much."

SKULL FRACTURED AND BAD INTERNAL INJURIES RECEIVED

W. H. Steed, Formerly of Janesville, in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, as Result of Railway Accident.

W. H. Steed, son of Patrick H. Steed of 253 Gold street and a former resident of Janesville, was seriously injured while at work as a brakeman in Chicago yesterday afternoon. His skull was fractured and serious internal injuries were sustained.

He is now at St. Luke's hospital in a precarious condition, and his mother and father are at his bedside. The nature of the accident is, unable to ascertain, no definite news having been received by his relatives here. His sister, Miss Minnie Steed, a clerk at the Lowell Department store, telephoned to the hospital, but was able to get only a few unreliable facts. It was thought that he was standing on top of a high box-car as the train passed under a viaduct at Fortieth street and his head struck one of the timbers, breaking his skull and throwing him to the ground.

The following telegram was received from the Fortieth street station this afternoon: "Wm. Steed is improving and he is not in immediate danger. Has 'bad' gash in head and badly bruised about body. He was knocked from the top of train by an overhead bridge. He is doing nicely and think he will get along all right if no complications set in." About a year ago while walking along the top of a broken train in Kenosha the two parts of the train came together with such force that he was thrown from the top to the ground and was unconscious for some time. He was picked up by a couple of tramps, who laid him on the side of the road with thirty dollars and a watch valued at fifty-five dollars in his pockets, without touching either.

RUMOR THAT RIGGS COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Brought Here by Railroad Men on the Early Morning Train From Baraboo.

Railroad men and passengers arriving on the early morning train from Baraboo today brought a report to the effect that Nathan Riggs, conductor on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road, who was suspected of being in some manner implicated in the atrocious murder of Miss Nellie Ellison of Ellsworth, Wis., at the National hotel in Minneapolis Monday night, and who was arrested at Elroy yesterday, blew out his brains with a revolver sometime after midnight. As recounted in yesterday's dispatches, the woman's head was crushed with a hammer blow while she was sleeping, the body tied to the couch, and the whole saturated with wood alcohol and set afire in an apparent effort to conceal the crime. A man registered at the hotel as "M. P. Wilson" of Milwaukee occupied a room directly above this chamber and was seen, running from the woman's room a few moments before the fire was discovered. Because Conductor Riggs was known to have been Miss Ellison's confidential business adviser, because he had been with her when she sold out her millinery business at Ellsworth for $6,500 and had a draft for $2,741 cashed before departing for Minneapolis, and because robbery was believed to have been the motive of the horrible crime, every cent of money having disappeared, a search for him was once instituted. According to this morning's report the officers did not take the precaution to search Riggs and he shot himself while in their custody.

JANESVILLE WOMEN PLAYED BASEBALL.

Two Teams Went Into Country For Game Last Week—One Gossip Of The Diamond.

Janesville has certainly become enthusiastic over baseball this year. The town is not quite as crazy as Freeport but it is doubtful if the interest is as general there as here. Not only are the local men and boys eagerly awaiting all games, but even the women have the fever. The number of lady fans at each exhibition increases regularly and one day last week the limit was reached. Some twenty fans of the fairer sex drove out into the country far from the city and sight of all, and played a game. The story of the contest, or the nature of the prize which went to the winning team, the women refuse to divulge, but nevertheless it must have been exciting and interesting for the women still "ache" from their unusual exertion.

Maroons Here Sunday.

SWAPPING YARNS OF THE HUNTING LODGE

When Postmaster Charles L. Valentine and City Marshal William H. Appleby are seen in close conference on the public highways these days it is a safe hazard that they are talking about nothing of more serious moment than the sayings of "Dick" and the doings of a mysterious character called "Cochin."

"Dick," surnamed Johnson, is the Grand Spunk of that section of Forest county which lies between Lakes Crane and Ke-No-She-A about thirty-eight miles from Antigo. He rules in undisputed sway over the miscellaneous Indians and pot-hunters who infest the region and smack their lips over the toothsome supplies

FINES ALTON ROAD ON REBATE CHARGE

TWO FORMER OFFICIALS ALSO PENALIZED.

NO BASIS FOR THE REFUNDS

Hauling Packing Company's Product Over Private Track Does Not Differ in Principle from Delivery Made by Wagon.

Chicago, July 12.—Judge Landis Wednesday fined the Chicago & Alton railroad $20,000 each on two counts, making a total of $40,000, the limit for the fine. President Fairthorn was fined $5,000 on two counts, half the maximum, and Fred A. Wann was fined $5,000 on each count. The total of the fines was $100,000. Judge Landis declared he saw no extenuating circumstances in the case.

Attorney R. M. Shaw, for the railway company and former officials, asked for a bill of exceptions, that the case may be appealed. This fine is identical with the one assessed some time ago by Judge Betha against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and two officials on a similar charge.

Witnesses Fail to Appear.

Last Friday Judge Landis informed the defeated attorneys, Mr. Shaw and John Barton Payne, that he would give them until Monday to produce evidence tending to show that the granting of the rebate by the defendant to the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company was publicly known in Kansas City. When court convened Attorney Shaw declared he had not time enough to produce witnesses, but that he had evidence that a similar transaction in two instances had been approved by United States Judge Phillips in Kansas City while he, as a court, was administering the Kansas City Belt line then in the hands of a receiver. He could not produce witnesses, he said, because they feared making confessions might place them in danger of prosecution.

Fine of $120,000 Possible.

The verdict of guilty made it possible for the judge to fix a maximum fine of $40,000 each, or $120,000. Judge Landis, however, has taken into consideration alleged lack of any criminal intent. The judge wished to determine whether the arrangement of rebating one dollar on each car to the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company was known to all other roads and shippers. The prosecution against the Chicago & Alton road and its officials was precipitated by the investigation of the packing industries. The indictment followed. It was announced that other roads will be prosecuted.

Says Alton Should Have Been Paid.

Judge Landis said in passing sentence: "It seems to me that instead of paying Schwarzschild & Sulzberger for the use of its tracks, Schwarzschild & Sulzberger should have paid the Chicago & Alton for that particular service. I see no difference between the Chicago & Alton paying Schwarzschild & Sulzberger money than I would be able to see if the Chicago & Alton had paid Schwarzschild & Sulzberger if that company's product was hauled to the railroad company by wagons. A jury has rendered a verdict, and from it I see no escape. Counsel has talked about this being open and notorious in Kansas City, but there is not a fact before me that this was not a secret rebate.

"The Elkins law was passed in 1903. There was considerable agitation concerning its passage. I do not forget that railroad men and shippers gave close and diligent attention to that law, and any man interested in the general situation would have had no trouble in finding out about the law. These offenses took place one year after the law was passed. I will say there are not many facts in this case in support of the arguments, that this is not a case for substantial punishment."

To Prosecute Railroads. Madison, Wis., July 12.—Following a report by Railroad Commissioner Thomas Wednesday that the railroads of Wisconsin have been guilty of granting rebates under the guise of commissions Gov. Davidson has asked Attorney General Sturdevant's opinion, and will start prosecutions against all railroads if the attorney general holds that taxes can be collected on the sums thus omitted from gross earnings. The railroads so far examined are the Northwestern, the St. Paul and the Omaha, and all are alleged to be guilty.

ABATTOIRS NEED PROBING

British Inspector Says Investigation Would Reveal Worse Conditions Than Those at Chicago.

Distort July 12.—At the Sanitary Inspectors' conference here Wednesday, a delegate named Bottomley said if the British public knew a quarter of what was going on in the slaughter houses of this country the Chicago scare would become insignificant by comparison. He knew, he said, of a cow suffering from pulmonary consumption that was sold for $15, killed and eaten.

Farewell Banquet to Consul.

Henry Hendrickson of Waupaca was terribly mangled while attempting to examine a brake on a coal car which did not work. The train started while he was underneath. His recovery is doubtful.

MUST EARN RIGHT TO LABEL

Meat Packers Cannot Secure Government Certificates Until Perfect Conditions Prevail

Chicago, July 12.—Secretary James Wilson of the department of agriculture concluded his work in Chicago Wednesday by issuing a statement in which he denied the Chicago meat packers the use of the United States government inspection label as a guarantee to the world of the fitness of their products as food, until they have made perfect the sanitary conditions in the buildings where food is prepared. He then took a train for the west, where he will continue to look into the packing industry.

This move by the government is looked upon as a drastic action to force the packers to pursue with vigor the work of renovating their plants. Announcement is made in the same declaration that the inspection under the new law will begin at once in plants where sanitary conditions justify it, and the government label may be used by the owners of such plants. Chicago establishments are mentioned specifically and are said to be on the way to improvement. The secretary says he considers that they will be ready for inspection by August 1, but that if they are not they will not get the inspection even then.

Sons of Temperance.

Toronto, Ont., July 12.—The sixty-second convention of the national division of America of the Sons of Temperance began here with a large attendance from the United States and Canada. The most worthy patriarch in his address reported a net loss of 2,803 members during the year leaving the total membership at 35,005.

Tinned Meat Trade Reduced.

London, July 12.—In June of last year there arrived at the Albert docks from Boston and New Orleans, 27,000 cases of tinned meats; in June of this year the receipts were only 4,000 cases. In July, 1905, 24,000 cases were received, but thus far this month no tinned meats have arrived from the United States.

Gasoline Kills Two.

Arcadia, Neb., July 12.—Mrs. William Misner and her three-year-old daughter, were burned to death here yesterday by an explosion of gasoline. Their clothing ignited and a boy, the only one who could help them, was unable to extinguish the flames.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until the 20th day of July, 1906, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for furnishing all the material and doing all the work necessary and required to improve North and South River street from the North side of Pleasant street to the North side of the West Side Fire Station, and the alley across lots 2 and 8, Smith, Bailey and Stone's Addition, from Franklin street to River street, and across lots 3 and 4 said addition, from Dodge street to the alley north, according to the respective specifications, profiles, plans and details thereof on file in the office of the city clerk of said city, for the inspection of bidders.

Said street and alley are to be graded to a sub-grade, and surfaced with a brick pavement, together with curbing made of stone where required, and the work upon said street and alley will be let under separate contracts.

Work shall be commenced upon said street and alley on or before the first day of August, 1906, and the whole work shall be completed on or before the first day of September, 1906, failing in which the contractor shall pay to the city of Janesville as liquidated damages, the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each and every day's delay in completing said work.

Directions to Bidders.

Each bidder must accompany his bid with a contract and bond, with not less than two sureties, who shall be freeholders of the state of Wisconsin, and shall justify as to their responsibility and by their several affidavits show that they are worth in the aggregate at least the amount of the entire contract price in property not by law exempt from execution. Surety companies authorized to do business in this state will be accepted in lieu of personal sureties. Said contracts and bonds, with sureties, must be completely executed on the part of the contractor, with the exception of the signatures on the part of the city. THIS IS A POSITIVE REQUIREMENT OF THE CHARTER AND MUST BE COMPLIED WITH. Bids failing to comply with the above requirements will not be considered.

Bidders must submit proposals to do the entire work according to the specifications, profiles, plans and details thereof prepared for the street or alley upon which such bid is made, stating therein prices respectively per square yard of brick pavement, per lineal foot for furnishing stone curbing in place, per lineal foot for furnishing protection curbing in place, per lineal foot for resetting curbing and per lineal foot for resetting protection curbing, so far as the same are applicable to said work, under the specifications, profiles and plans.

No bid will be considered unless it contains a price for doing the work with a kind of brick or paving block, a sample of which has been approved by the street assessment committee. No bid will be considered that does not contain prices for doing the entire work on the street or alley upon which such bid is made, as called for in the specifications, profiles and plans. The bids for the work and material will be canvassed separately and considered in the aggregate based on the estimated quantities named in the specifications, and awarded as separate contracts for said street or alley. All bids and the accompanying contracts and bonds must be written on the blanks prepared by the undersigned for the purpose, and prices should be stated in writing and in figures.

Address all bids as follows: "Street Assessment Committee," with the name of the street or alley upon which such bid is made marked on the envelope, and file the same with the city clerk of said city.

N. B.—Blanks for the proposals and blank contracts and bond for street or alley will be furnished on application to the city clerk.

The bids, when the lowest ones, will be decided by the street assessment committee.

The said committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Go Between First Selling Plater to Win Classic Suburban Handicap. Annette Kellerman's Astounding Swimming Exploit--Golfer Brail

Go Between, the winner of the Suburban handicap of 1906, held, as usual, at Sheephead Bay, N. Y., is the present sensation of the turf. Go Between, originally a member of the despised "selling-plater" class, was never ranked better than a second rate until this season, when he surprised the talent by winning three races out of six or seven starts.

In these three races he defeated such well-known horses as Klamesha, Proprietor and Inquisitor. But as Klamesha ANNETTE KELLERMAN and Proprietor were not then in any kind of good shape. Go Between's Suburban chances, based on those performances, did not appreciably brighten.

Go Between won in the fast time of 2:05 1/5, one-fifth slower than the record established by Hermis in 1904.

Annette Kellerman, the phenomenal young Australian girl swimmer, has broken all records in a trial swim, making a distance of about twenty-three miles in 18 hours in the Danube river, aided by the current for a part of the distance.

Miss Kellerman, who is now twenty years old, bids fair to establish her claim to the title of champion long distance woman swimmer of the world. At the age of fifteen she won the amateur championship for a mile swim and has since secured all of the Australian amateur records. She has an exceptional muscular development for her age and is five feet seven inches in height and weighs 145 pounds.

James Brail, the Huddersfield golf professional, at the Muirfield links recently won the open golf championship of Great Britain for the third time.

On the last day Brail opened with par 8 at the first hole, but he made a slight mistake at the next, which cost him 5. Afterward he played steadily and did the outward journey in 38. His play on the return journey was equally good. With two holes to play he had ten strokes to win, and then, to the delight of the spectators, he ran down fifteen yards, put at the seventeenth and, taking the last in 4, won the championship with three strokes to spare.

JAMES BRAIL.

Brail's victory gives him rank as the world's greatest golfer.

Small Boats.

Popularity of the Knockabout Type of Racing Craft Greatly Increased.

It is but a few years ago that men with the best interests of yachting at heart were deploring the decline of small boat sailing.

Yacht racing, it was averred, had fallen into the hands of a class of men who, whether possessing knowledge of seamanship or not, had little use for it, since the size of their craft demanded the services of a professional skipper and crew.

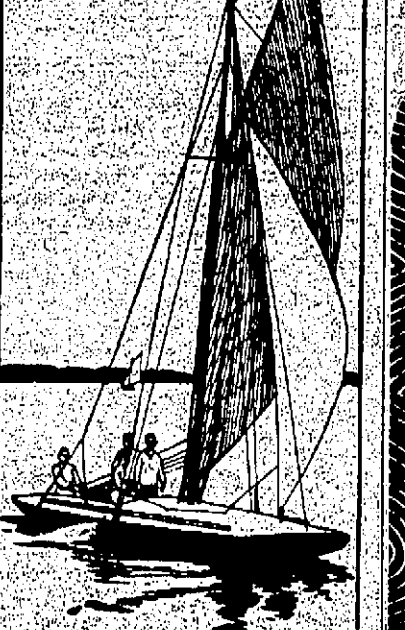

It was freely predicted that unless something was done to revive the popularity of small boats the Corinthian or amateur sailor would soon practically cease to be for want of a training school in which to acquire that intimate knowledge of boat handling which can be obtained only by personal experience in working sheet and tiller unaided by professional skill or muscle. Probably there is no sport in which a youthful beginning is more essential to the acquirement of that instinct or subconscious faculty which enables one to perceive correctly without conscious reasoning, and there are many accomplished theorists in nautical matters who are very indifferent sailors in practice.

The conditions which seemed to threaten the future of Corinthian yachting were commonly held to be in a large measure the result of the increasingly ambitious scale on which the America's cup races were being conducted, for the cup contestants were supposed to set a standard to be at least approximated, and these were not only becoming bigger and costlier, but were deteriorating into mere racing machines, whose usefulness terminated with their racing career.

Unquestionably the international races did and still do attract attention from small boat racing, and it is equally true that they have become little more than contests between professional designers and skippers, amateurs contributing scarcely more than the money wherewith to build and race them, but today the small boat is supreme, little complaint is heard of the cup defender, type, and if it did temporarily affect racing in general the yachting element has certainly cut loose from its influence.

A glance over the list of starters in any of the big regattas is sufficient demonstration of this.

It would seem as though the reaction in favor of small boats must have been inevitable, for it is hard to believe that a people so strongly imbued with the nautical instinct as we are could long have remained content with

FRONTENAC, KNOCKABOUT TYPE (LARK), NOW IN WIDE FAVOR.

(The Frontenac was a candidate for Seawanhaka Corinthian cup honors last year.)

yachting honors dearly bought, but bringing so little nautical distinction to the purchaser.

At all events, the development of the knockabout type so fast, so responsive, so easily handled and so comparatively inexpensive hastened the reaction.

Prior to the appearance of this type the familiar American catboat was the popular craft of the small yachtsman, but now the catboat, with its big, unwieldy mainsail, has been almost entirely superseded. Few are built and fewer raced, for the knockabout rig with its foresail, inboard combined the merit of a sloop with that of a cat.

Another great factor in the revival of the small boat has been the introduction of one design classes.

Nearly all the well known yacht clubs now have their one design knockabouts or racabouts, which furnish the life of the season, and many of these, such as the Manhasset Bay (N. Y.), New Rochelle (N. Y.), Buzzards Bay (Mass.), Seawanhaka raceabouts and knockabouts and Newport (R. I.) thirty footers have become famous. Incidentally the small boat racers, which class is by no means limited by financial considerations, but includes the proprietors of many of the most magnificent sailing and steam craft, have their international blue ribbon event, which enlists almost as much nautical attention as the America's cup races and seems to be gaining more general notice every year.

This is the struggle for the Seawanhaka Corinthian challenge trophy, one of the most interesting and exciting of the annual aquatic features.

QUINTET KILLED IN TROLLEY WRECK

PASSENGER TRAIN RUNS INTO FREIGHT CARS.

FIRST CAR IS DEMOLISHED

Motor Going at High Rate of Speed Crashed Into Open Siding, Crushing Out Life of Five Persons.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 12.—A train of two trolley cars, westbound from Lockport on the lines of the International Railway company and due at Tonawanda at 9:15 o'clock Wednesday night, ran into an open switch at a siding just east of Martinsville, and crashed into a freight motor and a train of seven freight cars which were lying on the siding, waiting for the passenger train to go by.

Car Is Demolished.

Five passengers were killed outright and a score injured, some of whom may die.

The passenger cars were going at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred and the impact was terrific. The foremost car was utterly demolished. The wedge-shaped end of the freight motor cut in half and the rear car completed the work of destruction.

Members of the relief parties hurriedly dispatched on news of the wreck did not at first realize that two passenger cars were involved, so complete had been the demolition of one of them.

The rear car was badly stove in in front, but remained on the tracks.

Run Into Open Switch.

The switch into the siding was not closed for the passenger cars thundering along took the turn and crashed upon the freight engine.

There were about 40 persons on the two cars and most of them were killed or injured. The motorman of the first passenger coach was killed.

At the hospitals in Buffalo, it was reported at a late hour that Johnson, the motorman, was the only one among the injured likely to die.

Dead and Injured.

Following is a list of the dead: John Bitman, motorman, Lockport, N. Y.

Charles T. Hutcheson, negro, Lockport.

Mrs. Henry Ertell, of Buffalo, and six-year-old son.

Unknown girl of 18.

The most seriously injured are: Theodore Nestman, Buffalo, head and arms injured.

Dr. E. A. Wieland, Buffalo, head injured, arm crushed.

H. J. Walz, Buffalo, head cut, arm broken.

Mrs. Emma K. Maloney, Buffalo, internal injuries.

Mrs. Virginia Sanderson, Buffalo, internal injuries.

Mrs. J. D. Heath, Niagara Falls, internal injuries.

Lee Johnson, motorman, both legs crushed, probably die.

Bucking Broncho Injures Five.

Granite City, Ill., July 12.—A half score persons were injured, five painfully, by the stampede of a bucking broncho during the performance of a wild west show at the Tri-Cities street fair Wednesday. A section of the seats collapsed, with a loud report. The broncho became unmanageable, trampling upon those caught beneath the seats.

Carrie Nation Arrested.

Cleburne, Tex., July 12.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was arrested Wednesday by a deputy United States marshal on a warrant charging her with having misused the mails. The warrant specifies that she deposited in the Guthrie, Okla., post office, a publication containing an improper article headed, "A Private Talk to Boys."

Judge Fisher, of St. Louis, decided the United Railway company, which recently purchased the St. Louis Transit company, is not liable for judgments rendered against the Transit company resulting from suits because of street car accidents.

The Chinese minister at St. Petersburg has telegraphed to Peking that Russia has decided to double her section of the Chinese Eastern railway and expand all its branch lines at an estimated cost of $10,000,000, to be raised by the issue of domestic bonds.

President Roosevelt is enjoying his first real vacation since his occupancy of the White House. In the week and a half he has "administered" affairs from Sagamore Hill. He has had but two visitors, Sir Joseph Ward and Secretary Taft, and these visits were brief.

War Secretary Haldane, in opening the new portion of the Soldiers and Sailors' home at Fimlaco, England, said: unless the people at large work for the material and moral welfare of the soldier outside his bare profession they would not get the quality of men needed.

S. K. Pearcy, the special Isle of Pines delegate, returned to Havana from Washington. He says he had sufficient votes in the United States senate to defeat the sovereignty treaty, but preferred for the present a continuance of existing conditions with regard to the Isle of Pines.

Secretary Metcalf rendered a decision in favor of the three alien machinists who were imported from St. John, N. B., by the Hoopston Horse Nail company of Hoopston, Ill., holding that they come under the exception where labor of like kind unemployed cannot be found in the United States.

Prof. Thomas H. Teegan, of the Central Training college, Dublin, Ireland, arrived at New York on the steamer Oceanic. He has come to America to obtain objects of historic interest for the international exhibition to be held in Dublin in 1907.

Not So Silly.

Wary from the chase, the ostrich of the desert stuck his head in the sand. "You silly bird," said the hunter, coming up, "do you imagine I can't see you?"

"You mistake my purpose," replied the ostrich, with dignity. "Of course you can see me, but you miserable feather-stealing egg-hunting land plume, I thus relieve myself of the necessity of seeing you."

Conscious that he had the better of the argument, the ostrich yielded $40 worth of plumes without a murmur. Philadelphia Ledger.
